THE BEACON

Volume 60, Issue 1

January 2018

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

Wesley Smith
Katie Harris
Nicole Masley
[Signature]

May the warmth and joy of the Christmas Season
 remain with you throughout the coming year.

*"When they had seen him, they spread the word concerning what had been told them about this child, and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds said to them"
 Luke 2:17-18*

I have shared that Scripture in a prior issue. The shepherds were compelled to share what they had been told about Jesus. Their encounter with Jesus changed their lives forever. They had seen the Messiah! Luke tells us that "all who heard it were amazed." Shepherds are not known for their communication skills, however when they told others the story of them seeing Jesus, everyone was amazed. Something happened in them. Not only did they have a story to tell, but I believe others knew they were telling the truth because of how they were sharing it.

Another Christmas has come and gone. Have we encountered Jesus? Are we excited about telling others about him? Over eighty thousand people in Cleveland County need to hear, see and know Jesus. How are we going to reach them?

Luke tells us when the shepherds returned they were glorifying and praising God for all they had seen and heard. The primary purpose of the church is to glorify God. I pray that we as churches are focusing on glorifying God! ("Flickering Lamps: Christ and His Church" pg. 8) See also, Romans 11:36 and Ephesians 3:20-21.

Praying and Serving With You!
 Wesley

*"The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things they had heard and seen, which were just as they had been told."
 Luke 2:20*

Thoughts from our Staff.....

Thank you again for allowing me to serve as Director of Church and Community Ministries in GCCBA for the past 28 years. Once again, I express my deepest gratitude to the volunteers and staff who have so faithfully served, too, to make the CCM a ministry that has touched so many lives in meaningful ways and brought help and hope in their time of crisis. I know you will continue to encourage and help the volunteers and staff in the future as they continue to serve those in need in the county.

My family and I were most grateful for the drop-in reception given for us and I thank you particularly for your prayers, well-wishes for the future, and encouraging cards and comments shared with us in that special time together.

As we have just celebrated Advent, Christmas, and we have the hope of a New Year ahead, a refrain continues to come to my mind to remind us to make room in our hearts for Christ to richly indwell us and serve Him every day:

Thou didst leave Thy throne and Thy kingly crown,
When Thou camest to earth for me;
But in Bethlehem's home was there found no room
For Thy holy nativity:
Oh, come to my heart, Lord Jesus!
There is room in my heart for Thee;
Oh, come to my heart, Lord Jesus, come,
There is room in my heart for Thee.

Charles Reed

One thing I love most about the Christmas season is the giving spirit of people. At Christmas time you see and hear of people helping provide food and toys for families in need, and people give more to ministries and missions so that God's love can be shared around the world. People seem more willing to give a smile or nod to those they see in the mall, in restaurants, or around town. All around you hear people exchanging Merry Christmas and God bless you and your family. As I think about this, I am reminded of the verses in James 1:22-25 where God commands us to be doers of the Word and not just hearers. God wants us to have this same giving and loving spirit year round, not just at Christmas time. Our life should portray His by our actions and words. As the new year starts, I pray that each of us will make a special effort to be doers of the Word by showing Christ to all those around us each and every day.

Katie

The Spirit of the Lord Comes with the Spirit of Christmas

Isaiah 40:3-5: "A voice of one calling: 'In the wilderness prepare the way for the Lord; make straight in the desert a highway for our God. Every valley shall be raised up, every mountain and hill made low; the rough ground shall become level, the rugged places a plain. And the glory of the Lord will be revealed, and all people will see it together. For the mouth of the Lord has spoken. '"

We have completed the year 2017, and it has passed on fast. The year 2018 is at the door already. And like with all work the end brings a time to sit, think, and meditate on the past--the risks taken, the failures, but also the achievements and victories that Christ the Lord gave us. We were instruments of the Lord in His hands. His melodies were executed in us. We could fulfill the role of His plans in our lives. We could take to the unbeliever the Word of God. We could work as Bible teachers and mentor younger believers in the faith. We could travel in the power of Christ and give testimony of all the wealth of knowledge delivered by the Master of our lives. We could economically invest in the Kingdom, and also give to others by feeding, clothing, building His Kingdom, educating people to help fill their pantries and cellars, and giving thanks because now it is Christmas, a special time of celebration where Christ receives all honor and glory. The Lord is the center of all worship. It is not bad that there are lights, decorated trees, colors, gifts to the deprived, food for those in need because all of this gives us a way to point to Jesus Christ which is the primary motivation in our lives. The Lord is who deserves honor and praise. He is our Redeemer, our Savior. Thank You, Lord, because we have met, and we are prepared to be your servants in the fields of the work of you again in this new year. Thank You because just as John the Baptist was a voice also crying in the wilderness, we are continually preparing that path, a path that leads to the Kingdom of God. We are grateful also to be singers of the power of Christ, who helps twisted lives and straightens paths. Thank You for the power of the Word and accessibility of the Gospel of the Lord and for changing hearts. Thank You because today, even in the current century, Your glory is manifested and You are magnified with songs of victory, with celestial hymns, with trumpets, drums, flutes and tambourines. Christ the Lord is born. To him is the glory forever and ever amen. I wish a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year 2018 to all the congregations of our association.

Rev. José. A. Espinal, Hispanic Language Missionary

Jose and Maria Espinal are available to come cook a meal for your church family and share about GCCBA mission work in Nicaragua. The proceeds from the meal go to help support our dental clinic in Jinotega, Nicaragua. To schedule his group to cook a meal, please contact Katie Harris.

Missions Opportunities

Christmas Toy Store

I appreciate everyone who gave to our 2017 Christmas Toy Store. Because of your gracious help, we were able to provide toys for over 250 children in Cleveland County. I want to say a special thank you to the many volunteers who came and assisted during the Toy Store. This is a large ministry that would not be possible without help from our wonderful volunteers.

We will be having a Mission Trip Interest meeting on February 1st at 6:30. During this meeting we discuss dates for our summer trips. In you are interested in more information please make plans to attend this important meeting.

Friday Feed the Hungry Lunch Program

We are currently looking for churches to help at our Friday Feed the Hungry lunch each Friday in 2018. Groups that come will be asked to provide chips, cookies, and sandwiches for 75 people. Groups will help serve lunch to the needy in Cleveland County. If you would like to help please contact Katie Harris.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS FOR "OPERATION INASMUCH 2018," APRIL 28TH! GET YOUR CHURCH COORDINATORS NOW, AND LET US KNOW WHO THEY ARE AND HOW TO CONTACT THEM.

The Day of Giving for Children's Homes of Cleveland County is February 4, 2018. Our agency is very close to beginning construction on the new facility that will include transitional housing for youth aging out of the foster care system. Yet, there are still many needs and there are many ways that churches and missions groups can be helpful. Last year at the Day of Giving some of the ideas to raise money were a soup lunch, a Pickleball Tournament, a love offering, a fund raising festival among others. This year the options are even greater. Would your church like to have a "Kitchen shower" or a "bathroom shower" to supply one of the apartments? Would you like to stock a kitchen with all the gadgets one needs to cook? Or would you like to schedule a date in the fall and stock the cabinets with food? Perhaps bath towels and shower curtains are what you would like to donate. We need all of these items for the apartments!

If you would like bulletin inserts for that day please let us know and we can supply information about our agency and the Right of Passage campaign, just call 704-484-2558 and ask for Margie. If you want more information about our project go to YouTube and search for CHCC Right of Passage. Our sincere thanks to all of you that took part in last year's Day of Giving.

DUKE ENERGY FOUNDATION

Share the Warmth was established in 1985 to assist Carolina's residents in need with winter heating bills and is funded by our customers, employees and the Duke Energy Foundation. Contributions are matched dollar-for-dollar up to $500,000.

The Share the Warmth program provides financial assistance with heating bills during the winter season for individuals and families in need within the service territories in the Carolinas.

Funding for Share the Warmth comes from our customers, employees and the Duke Energy Foundation. Each winter, Duke Energy customers are sent bill inserts along with self-addressed postage-paid envelopes about the program. The Duke Energy Foundation will then match up to $500,000 in customer contributions during the heating season.

Paperless Billing customer donations

Our Paperless Billing customers can easily make a donation online when scheduling their monthly Duke Energy payment. Customers will need to complete the section titled "Customer Contribution" if they would like to make a donation to Share the Warmth.

Additional information

Contributions may be tax deductible. Consult a tax advisor before claiming a contribution.

Since 1985 the Greater Cleveland County Baptist Association has been the exclusive distributor for Share the Warmth in Cleveland County. You can also have a very important part in Share the Warmth by mailing your contributions in to the Duke Energy Foundation and having them matched dollar-for-dollar by the foundation. MAKE CHECKS PAYABLE TO SHARE THE WARMTH FUND and mail them to the following address:
