Words from Wesley....

"Seek the Lord while He may be found; call to Him while He is near. Let the wicked one abandon his way and the sinful one his thoughts; let him return to the Lord so He may have compassion on him, and our God for He will freely forgive." Isaiah 55:6

Over the past few months I shared with you some great thoughts on church health from Thom Rainers book, "Autopsy of a Deceased Church." I pray that it has caused you to think and pray about where you are as a church. If you missed the last few newsletters, you can go to our website and click on Media, then Newsletters to see past newsletters.

Summer is officially over, school is back in and many of you are into your new church year. I erased how I ended the previous sentence. I had originally written, "and many of you are preparing to start your new church year." I pray that the preparation has already occurred. How will this upcoming church year be different than last year's? What steps have been made to seek the Lord's direction in the upcoming year? Do we need time before His throne, repenting and returning to God?

Isaiah instructed Israel to seek the Lord and return to Him. Abandon their way and return to the Lord so that He may have compassion on them. Isaiah tells Israel and the reader that God's thoughts are not our thoughts, and our ways are not God's ways. His ways are higher than ours.

My prayer is that we genuinely seek the Lord, repent, and walk in obedience to what He is leading us to do. Too many times I believe we just tweak what we did last year. Isaiah calls us to repentance and seeking the Lord. This is not a one time event. We should regularly come before God with humility and repenting hearts, seeking Him.

God promises in Isaiah 55:11 that He will accomplish what He desires and will prosper in what He does through His Word. Are we reading God's Word and seeking Him or are we just doing what we want to and then asking God to bless it?

We are praying for your upcoming church year, new Sunday School teachers, new deacons, new committee members, and new church leaders. Seek the Lord!

"For as heaven is higher than earth, so My ways are higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts." Isaiah 55:9

Thoughts from our Staff.....

In my life and ministry, there are often times that I get frustrated because I do not get to see the fruits of my labor. This often happens at home as I straighten up only to come back in the room and see that it's a mess again, or when I finally finish the laundry and then see that my children (or husband!) have changed clothes again. Every one of us likes to see that what we do makes a difference. Often times, in churches and on mission trips, I see this happen. Maybe you have helped with a VBS at your church that is not well attended. Maybe you teach a children's Sunday School class, and you wonder if they are even listening much less learning anything. You may have been on a mission trip where you have helped with a block party where no one came or worked at a VBS that only had 2 kids. You maybe wondering where I am going with this, but hang with me.

I recently received a letter from Patrick Lynch, a church planter we work with in Indiana. In this letter, he wanted to thank us for the partnership we have with his church. In one paragraph, he said, "You all gave me the courage and support to go forward with a church plant even when at times I doubted that it would work". What a great reminder that even the small things we do can encourage someone and result in an eternal impact. We may never see hundreds of people accept Christ at a block party in Indiana, our help and encouragement allows them to continue doing God's work.

I hope you will take time now to think and pray about who needs an encouragement and what you can do to help. Does your pastor need a kind word to encourage him to carry on or is there a small church down the street that could use help with a block party? Find ways to encourage others and rest assured that God will use your efforts to glorify himself.

Katie

Therefore encourage one another and build one another up, just as you are doing. 1 Thessalonians 5:11

THE MISSIONS INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL

"And they, going out, preached everywhere, helping the Lord and confirming the word with the signs that followed. Amen." Mark 16:20.

This month, August, has been a tremendous blessing for the Mission in Nicaragua. We served Bethlehem Baptist Church in Kings Mountain in a special way, but we were also able to attend program at Elizabeth Baptist Church in Shelby. Both groups always encourage us when we come to serve them. They have allowed us to move forward to the end of the first phase of the Principe de Paz Baptist Church in Managua, which is pastored by Brother Pedro Antonio Calero Lopez. I brought to your minds and hearts this passage from Mark chapter 16, in which the Word of God tells us that the disciples of Christ were men and women of action who, while Christ went up to heaven and sat at the right hand of the Father, took the responsibility to continue the message of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. These disciples were willing servants as they were spreading and going everywhere. This to me means that they left the territory of Israel to expand the Word, that allowed you and I, today, to enjoy the good news of salvation. Throughout that journey the Word of God affirms that although Christ was already in heaven, He collaborated with them. It says in God's Word that the Lord helped them. They were dependent men of Christ who did not go without the presence of God. This presence has been forever in all those servants who are used to being obedient, dependent, and effective in mission work. Christ was confirming all those who declared, all those to whom Christ forgave sins. These soldiers of Christ were confirming people and this action was also accompanied by signs of God (miracles, healings, hedges, changes, and transformations). The presence of God is indispensable in everything we undertake. I remind all of you that Moses told God that if His presence was not with him that he would not move from his place. This would also be the slogan of these times. Let's do missions. Let's promote missions. Let's encourage missions. Let's collaborate with missionaries. Let's be a part of missions. Let's always be praying that God's presence goes with the missionaries. We give thanks.

Thoughts from our Staff.....

for the churches that invite us. We are eager to continue working for the King. We expect more invitations from you to also be part of those who do missions everyday. We bless the life of the leaders of our association for the daily work, for their prayers, for their positions of leadership in the different congregations. We wish for all of you the best moments as pastors. May God increase the vision and provision in the projects you have, and the purposes of God in the life of your congregation.
Respectfully. BLESSINGS. Jose Espinal.

School Prayer Walks

I am so grateful to the churches who have agreed to host prayer walks at local schools. What a wonderful blessing to the teachers and staff at each school. Please visit our website to see the list of times that each prayer walk will be held. This year we have focused our efforts on helping our churches connect with local schools. Church/school partnerships are such a great way to reach out to the community around your church.

Jail Ministry

It is time for orientation for current jail ministry volunteers and new volunteer enrollment for the 2020-2022 Jail Ministry Volunteer programs. Below is the schedule of dates and locations for orientation for the month of November. Please make arrangements to attend one of the sessions that works best for your schedule. Each session will begin at 7:00pm and should last approximately one (1) hour. At this time you will receive volunteer packets and rule books. Thank you so much for your time and participation in this ministry.

November 4: First Baptist Kings Mountain
November 11: Location TBD
November 18: Elizabeth Baptist Church
November 21: Poplar Springs Baptist Church
November 25: Location TBD

You must attend one of these sessions to be a part of the jail ministry for the next two years.

Baptists on Mission will be holding Basic Construction Skills Training at our Mission Camps in October. These one-day events offer training in how to install laminate flooring, hang and finish drywall, build wheelchair ramps, replace roofing, and simple framing of a building.

Churches are invited to learn new skills that they can use in their neighborhood and on mission trips.
