Volume 63, Issue 2

February 2021

Thoughts from Leland . . .

I was in high school in the 60's when many popular songs were released telling us about the importance of love. The Beatles sang:

All you need is love

All you need is love

All you need is love, love

Love is all you need

Burt Bacharach and Hal David wrote and Jackie DeShannon sang:

What the world needs now is love, sweet love

It's the only thing that there's just too little of

What the world needs now is love, sweet love

No not just for some, but for everyone

February is thought of by most as the "love" month and in 2020, just prior to the pandemic outbreak in America, Americans spent $27.4 billion on Valentine's Day. People invested much time, energy and money on Valentine's Day to express their love in various ways. Extravagant means are used to express just the right love in just the right way.

How much time, energy and money do we invest in others to show them the supreme love - the love of Jesus Christ? Are we as followers of Christ, the Church, using extravagant means to show others this love of Jesus? Jesus taught us the meaning, depth and scope of the kind of love He wants us to have in order to practice extravagant love – "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the great and foremost commandment. The second commandment is like it. You shall love your neighbor as yourself." Matthew 22:37-39 (NASB). Another example of extravagant love is found in Matthew 5:44 when Jesus said, "But I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you" (NASB).

We are living in a time when some of those around us desperately need to see and feel the love of Jesus in the midst of fears, disrespect, mistrust, deceit, isolation and loneliness. Our task as followers of Christ is to live out His love daily in our lives. It begins with how those outside the community of faith observe how we in the community of faith, the church, love and treat one another. Jesus taught, "By this all men will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another" John 13:35 (NASB). Do others see us see this love in us?

Rev. Henry Drummond, a 19th century Scottish evangelist, biologist and author wrote these words that are so relevant today, "How many prodigals are kept out of the Kingdom of God by the unlovely character of those who profess to be in! [the Kingdom of God]. People are keenly aware of how we the church model the love of Jesus Christ. I urge each of us to love one another extravagantly as brothers and sisters in Christ and to find ways to "love our neighbors as ourselves" extravagantly!

Thoughts from our Staff.....

Allow me to edit the song I mentioned above: What the world needs now is love, the sweet love of Jesus, No not just for some but for everyone!

Grateful for the love of Jesus,
Leland Kerr
Interim Associational Missionary

In Bible times, when someone spoke of following your Rabbi it literally meant being so close to him that the dust from his feet got on your clothes. This is a wonderful picture of the way we as Christians are supposed to follow Christ. When we are close to Jesus His love, passion, compassion, and mission end up covering us. Then when we are dusty from traveling so close to Him we are ready to share what we have learned with others. What a wonderful picture of what our daily life should look like as we follow Christ each step of the way.

Serving together,
Katie

Cleveland County Potato Project

Many of our churches have large expanses of beautifully landscaped grounds. Is it possible that God gave us this land to be used to His glory and to the benefit of others? Have you considered using a portion of your land/ grounds to plant vegetables to minister to those with hunger needs? Growing food can be an inexpensive mission project for all ages. Now is the time to begin soil preparation, getting organized, planning, making decisions about what/how much to grow, and enlisting volunteers.

Growing food and giving it away to those who are experiencing hunger – what a great tangible witness!

Doug Sharp and the Potato Project Team

If your church has interest in sending a small team or has individuals that may want to join a small team please contact Katie.

Nicaragua Mission Partnership Update:

I want to thank everyone who donated to help provide Christmas gifts and food bags for over 320 children that the ministry serves. If you would like to see pictures of their Christmas parties please visit our Facebook page.

Churches who are involved may have some of the food to use in their own food ministry. If your church is interested in being involved please contact Katie Harris.
