THOUGHTS FROM LELAND . . .

Katie, Nicole and I attended the NC Associational Missions Conference at Caraway Conference Center on April 12-14. The theme of the Conference was "Courageous and Compelling Leadership" and our Guest Presenter was Dr. Jeff Iorg, the President of Gateway Theological Seminary (formerly Golden Gate Seminary). Dr. Iorg developed the theme in 5 sessions:

- Think/Live Like a Missionary
- Leading From the Inside Out
- Leading From the Outside In
- The Painful Side of Leadership
- Leading Major Change in Your Ministry

What a powerful speaker, leader and author he is with such insight and experience in the area of Christian Leadership. I encourage you to go to his website jeffior.org to find out more information about his weekly blog, his seminars and his books.

We were led in worship throughout the Conference time by Rev. Kenny Lamm, the Senior Consultant for Worship and Music of the Baptist State Convention and Dr. Chris Schofield, the Director of the Office of Prayer for the BSCNC. He led us to focus on two themes from various Biblical texts and to spend some time in directed prayer around:

- Praying Toward Courageous Leadership
- God Still Calls His People Back to Himself

We, your Associational Staff, are very grateful for this opportunity we had to gather with other Associational leaders from across our state for this time of inspiration, personal development, and fellowship. What a special time it was to re-connect with these colleagues after these many months apart due to the pandemic.

The City of God Family Worship Center was approved as a member church of our Association earlier this year after being under the watchcare of the Association. I had the opportunity to be part of their Launch Sunday and Dedication of their building and ministry on Sunday, April 11. Rev. Michael Moore, their founding Pastor, shared his vision of ministry for the church and their desire to impact the community. They are located at 1415 South Lafayette Street in Shelby and I encourage you to pray for them and seek ways to partner with them in ministry. Welcome, officially, Rev. Moore and City of God Family Worship Center to the GCCBA family of churches.

Have you heard of the "Mother's Day Offering" received by Wake Forest Baptist Medical Center/NC Baptist Hospital? This Offering is used to relieve the financial burdens patients incur while being hospitalized in the Medical Center. This annual Offering was established in 1924 and has changed the lives of thousands of families since it began. While I worked in the FaithHealth

Thoughts from our Staff.....

Ministries Division of the Medical Center (2013-2020), one of my main responsibilities was to promote this Offering and work with a Baptist Benevolence Committee to review and approve requests for assistance from the Offering. It was then my joy to contact the recipients to let them know that because of the love of Jesus Christ, caring people from across NC had given funds to pay their medical expenses. I would receive responses from the recipients like:

"I had given up hope of ever being able to pay this bill"

"God's timing is incredible...we were going to have to sell our house to pay our hospital bill"

"We can't believe that those who do not even know us would do this for us!"

"Because people cared for us this way, our faith in God has been restored.!"

I encourage your church to participate in the "Mother's Day Offering". You can find information about the 2021 Offering with stories, videos and promotional materials at mothersdayoffering.org or contact me. I can tell you from experience how this Offering has changed lives and brought many closer to Jesus Christ. Please consider giving Joyfully serving with you!

Leland Kerr

My daughter's favorite song is "Trust in You" by Lauren Daigle. Last night on our way home from church as we were listening to it again my husband pointed out a part of the lyrics that said "There's not a place where I'll go, You've not already stood". Isn't that a comforting thought? No matter what the world is like and no matter what we face Jesus has already been there and he will always be there. When I need answers or want to understand something I like to find a person who has experience in that situation. When we are sick we talk to a doctor or when our car breaks we talk to a mechanic because these people have experience and know answers and how to fix the problem. Jesus has experience regardless of the situation, no matter what the problem He knows the answer. So next time you find yourself somewhere that you don't know what to do or where to turn. Remember Jesus has already stood there and he is waiting to share His experience and guide you in the right direction.

Serving together,
Katie

The world gets out of control because we don't want to subdue ourselves.

Romans 13:-1-3 "Let every soul be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and the authorities that exist are appointed by God. Therefore whoever resists the authority resists the ordinance of God, and those who resist will bring judgment on themselves. For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to evil. Do you want to be unafraid of the authority? Do what is good, and you will have praise from the same."

Civilized countries are full of regulations, laws, and statutes, which really allows the society not to run away, not to stumble, not to commit crimes. The laws put in place by men must be made known and the society must study and know them. The laws have been made because of evil. If you are a good man, you do not have to fear them. Paul wrote to the Romans asking for every person to submit to authority, for the authorities have been established by God. If the law requires it and you are on a good path, you do not have to oppose or offer resistance. But, we have seen that opponents are as involved in disorder, in the amoral, and in motivating the heart of justice to use force and violence. Later when force is used, the society protests, and in the midst of the protest, windows are broken, doors are burned, blocks and stones are burned, and the most painful of the protest is looting, which is nothing but brazen theft. Protesting in this way to seek justice seems to me to be incorrect. Paul tells the Christian people in Rome that those who oppose the established by God, God resists; those who resist, those who oppose in this way carry condemnation for themselves. Magistrates and police are there to instill fear to those who choose lives of evil. A good person is not intimidated by authority. Paul says, "Do you want then not to fear authority? Do good, live well, and I'm sure you'll always have praise and not jail and persecution." You are of Christ, you are a servant of God, you are a torch to justice, and you are a paladin of freedom. The army carried a sword to stop the evil one and his actions. It's like a servant of God, it's there to avenge, to punish the one who does evil. If you have been involved in strikes, in protests, and have reflected that your actions have been correct and righteous, then you have done well; otherwise, you have become an instrument of evil, of violence, and of vandalism. The man of God holds himself as righteous, not only to avoid punishment, but to remain in integrity. We trust that you, as a Christian, will be a person who submits to authority. Blessings. Rev Jose A. Espinal. Servant by the grace and mercy of God. Amen.

Indiana Mission Partnership Update:

Though we are not going on an Associational wide mission trip this summer, we have had several requests from our church partners in Indiana. One church has requested a team of 12-15 to lead block parties and a sports camp in a neighborhood near the church. This church will be able to provide housing for the team. If you have a team interested in serving alongside this church, please contact Katie Harris.

Thank you!

Friday Lunch Program

We are thankful for the churches who participate in this ministry to help feed the hungry in Cleveland County. We have several dates available for churches to bring food. If you or a group at your church are interested in helping, please contact Katie.
