Thoughts from our Staff

"See, I have placed before you and open door that no one can shut. I know that you have little strength, yet you have kept my word and have not denied my name."

Revelation 4:8b

In one of my favorite movies, The Lord of the Rings: The Two Towers, there is a scene that I think well describes our churches. In this scene a king is confronted by what appears to be an unbeatable foe, and in response he shrinks in fear. One of the main characters begs the king to be brave and "ride out" against their foe, but in careful consideration the king chooses to not only retreat, but to move his people to a secluded stronghold to weather the attacks of the oncoming enemy.

Sometimes I believe our churches look at the enemy that stands in front of them and rather than "ride out" in faith following the commands of God, we retreat to where we think we will be safe only to find that our enemy will find us there as well.

In Revelation 4, God sends a message to the church at Philadelphia that He has opened a door, and whatever door He opens will remain open, they only need to choose to go through it. In our world we need churches and leaders that look at our enemy, that measure our resources and that count the cost, but are still willing to "ride out" in faith to fulfill God's call to be a church that carries the gospel to the world, to be a church that loves the people who are hurting, and to be a church that builds community within our walls to impact the community outside our walls. A church that regardless of size is transformational!

On April 13th, we are blessed to have Dr. Jeff Iorg, president of Gateway Seminary, present with us for two events. At 11:00 AM on April 13th, Dr. Iorg will be meeting our pastors in our monthly pastor's conference. This will be an informal time to share a meal and to have a conversation with Dr. Iorg about the challenge of change in the local church as well as the goal of leading a transformational church. We will hold a Q&A and allow pastors to talk with Dr. Iorg.

On the evening of April 13th, we will hold our semiannual deacons' and leadership training event at Elizabeth Baptist Church. We will begin the meal at 6:30 PM and follow that with an opportunity for our deacons and everyone who serves in leadership in our churches to hear from Dr. Iorg as he presents from his book, The Case for Antioch: A Biblical Model for a Transformational Church.

Don't miss this outstanding opportunity to hear from a very special guest who has a heart for the Lord, for the church and for what God desires to do through the church as we "ride out" in faith to transform our world.

Jason Ballard

A thought I hear asked and discussed often among Christians and in churches is how can we effectively tell people about Christ. Is there a better, easier, or more effective way than we are doing it now? We teach people how to use tools like tracts, the evangcube, or gospel bead bracelets. While these are effective ways to share the gospel we have to remember that the power in the story that we are telling is not that we have a flashy engaging way to share it but that it's the fact that the story is God's story.....the story is Jesus. I love the following lyrics from Anne Wilson's song "Let me tell you bout my Jesus"....the chorus says:

Let me tell you 'bout my Jesus
His love is strong and His grace is free
And the good news is I know that He
Can do for you what He's done for me
Let me tell you 'bout my Jesus
And let my Jesus change your life

As we move towards the Easter season I want to challenge you that the story that you have to tell about your Jesus is powerful and that telling that story to someone else can give them the opportunity to let Jesus change their life. So go, tell about your Jesus, and then praise him as you see the change in others.

Serving together,
Katie Harris
